No one gets into the Spurs like we do.

We were as excited as anyone when the Spurs won their first NBA championship last season. And we'll be behind them all the way this season, too. But that won't stop us from calling it like we see it. The Express-News will bring you the real story, whether it's on the floor or in the locker room. It's the least we can do, considering we get into all the games with the best seats in the house.

Spurs Ownership Group

Peter Holt
Chairman

Rolling up his sleeves and taking a simple, hands-on approach is nothing new to San Antonio Spurs Chairman Peter M. Holt. The president and CEO of the San Antonio-based Holt Companies, which own Caterpillar dealerships in South Texas and Ohio, Holt believes in leading by example through his values-based management philosophy. And, leadership is in the Holt bloodlines - the Spurs Chairman is the great-grandson of Benjamin Holt, inventor of the first crawler-tractor and a founder of Caterpillar, Inc.

Another Holt business tenet is corporate responsibility in supporting community projects, and that leads to one of the primary factors in his decision to invest in the Spurs - a desire to keep the team in San Antonio and operating successfully.

A Peoria, Ill., native, who lived in San Antonio as a child before moving to Corpus Christi, Holt bought into the Spurs in 1996 and became Chairman of the Board in July of that year. He and his wife, Julianna Hawn Holt, are now the franchise's principal owners.

The Holt family's history in San Antonio began in 1933, when Peter's great uncle, William K. "Bill" Holt, moved to San Antonio to start a Caterpillar dealership. His CAT territory stretched from Austin in the north to Corpus Christi in the east to Laredo in the west and included all the territory in between, including the entire Rio Grande Valley.

He had no heirs, so other family members got involved in the business. In 1961, B.D. Holt (Peter's father) moved to Corpus Christi and started his own Caterpillar dealership and other businesses. After high school in Corpus Christi, Peter Holt went into the U.S. Army, serving two years, including a one-year tour of duty in Vietnam. He ended his military duty as a Sergeant E5 with a Silver Star and three Bronze Stars for Valor and a Purple Heart for wounds received.

After the Army, Peter attended the University of Texas at Austin and UT-San Antonio, and then moved to California for business opportunities. He lived in California for 10 years, owning several restaurants and a hotel. In 1981, he came back to Texas and joined the campaign staff of U.S. Senator Lloyd Bentsen, and worked through Sen. Bentsen's successful re-election in 1982.

Peter re-joined his father in the Holt Companies in 1983 in Corpus Christi, and bought out his father's partner in the business in 1984. In September 1987, Peter and his father purchased Holt Machinery Co. in San Antonio, reuniting the original Caterpillar dealership that Bill Holt started in 1933. Not one for formalities and pretense, he offices in a San Antonio corporate headquarters building made of metal corrugated siding and dubbed "The Barn."

With a long commitment to community service, Holt is a member of the World Presidents' Organization, sits on the board of the San Antonio Council on Drug and Alcohol Abuse, the United Way of San Antonio and Bexar County and is a trustee of the Palmer Drug Abuse Program. A strong supporter of international trade, Holt is a board member of Free Trade Alliance-San Antonio, as well as the San Antonio Economic Development Foundation. He also serves on the corporate board of Chase Bank-San Antonio. This season Holt will be especially busy, as he is the 1999 General Campaign Chairman of the United Way of San Antonio and Bexar County.

Holt - a season-ticket holder since 1988 - is proud of the Spurs' history of commitment of the San Antonio community, which runs the gamut from United Way to the Spurs Foundation's efforts with the Fannie Mae Foundation - the Home Team Partnership - to help build and refurbish homes for purchase by persons with low-to-moderate incomes, to the Spurs Drug Free League for grade school kids who play basketball after school until their parents get home from work.

Since becoming part of the ownership group, Holt has been pleasantly surprised to learn first-hand the amount of community work the Spurs players do in San Antonio.

"I didn't realize how much time and effort the players give to this city," he says. "This is a great group of people who mean a lot to San Antonio off the basketball court."

But with all the notoriety that being Chairman of an NBA franchise brings, Holt remains grounded in the values which govern how he "does business."

"Working with volunteers on a community project, or with the Spurs players and staff, or within the Holt Companies, it's always the same," he says. "Treat people fairly and honestly, and the amount you can accomplish with others is far greater than anything you can do by yourself."

Spurs Basketball Staff

Gregg Popovich
Head Coach and General Manager

In just his third season as an NBA Head Coach, Gregg Popovich led the team he assembled as the Spurs' General Manager to the 1999 NBA Championship.

After posting a 37-13 record during the 1998-99 regular season, the Spurs compiled a 15-2 record in the 1999 post-season to capture the first title in the Spurs 26-year history.

Pop was named the Spurs GM on May 31, 1994 and since that time, the Spurs have used the draft, trades and free agency to put together the current team. In fact, David Robinson is the only player still on the Spurs roster from when Pop was named General Manager.

Named the Spurs Head Coach on December 10, 1996, Popovich has a career mark of 110-86 (.561) in the regular season. In addition, Pop enters the 1999-2000 season with the best career playoff winning percentage in NBA history with a .731 mark (19-7) in his two post-season appearances (based on the NBA's minimum of 25 playoff games - Phil Jackson ranks second with a .730 career winning percentage in the post-season).

In 1997-98, in his first full season as Head Coach, Pop led the Spurs to a 56-26 record, as the team set an NBA record for the greatest single season turnaround in league history, winning 36 more games than in the previous season.

During the 1998-99 season, the Spurs success was once again based on defense. For the second consecutive season the Spurs set an NBA record for the lowest opponent field goal percentage in league history, as opponents shot just .402 from the floor during the regular season. The .402 mark is the lowest recorded since the NBA started tracking the statistic prior to the start of the 1970 season - breaking the previous NBA record of .411 set by the Spurs during the 1997-98 campaign.

Popovich started his basketball career as a player. He played four seasons at the Air Force Academy and as a senior was the team's captain and leading scorer. Following his graduation in 1970, with a bachelor's in Soviet Studies, Pop served his five-year military commitment. During that time he toured Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union as a member of the U.S. Armed Forces Team. Pop was selected to represent the U.S. on the national A.A.U. Team touring the Soviet Union and in 1972 was the captain of the Armed Forces team, which won the A.A.U. Championship. In addition, he earned a spot at the 1972 U.S. Olympic Team Training Camp.

Once his playing days were over, Pop returned to the Air Force Academy as an Assistant Coach. He spent six years at Air Force during which time he also obtained his master's degree in Physical Education and Sports Sciences from the University of Denver.

In 1979, he was named the Head Coach at Pomona-Pitzer in Claremont, California. He spent the next eight seasons at Pomona-Pitzer. During the 1985-86 season he led the team to its first conference championship in 68 years and to a birth in the NCAA Tournament.

Popovich moved to the NBA in July of 1988 when he joined the Spurs as an Assistant Coach as a member of Larry Brown's staff. Pop spent the next four seasons in San Antonio for a Spurs team that won a pair of Midwest Division titles.

In the summer of 1992, Popovich was named an Assistant Coach on Don Nelson's staff with the Golden State Warriors. He spent the next two seasons with the Warriors before re-joining the Spurs in the summer of 1994.

Off the court Pop has made an impression in the San Antonio community. In February of 1992, Popovich and the Spurs were awarded a Daily Point of Light Award from President George Bush for the Spurs Drug Free Basketball League, a program which Pop helped develop. Today the Spurs Drug Free League has 15,000 participants in San Antonio and throughout South Texas and the program has been adopted by several other NBA teams.

Pop is involved in numerous charities throughout San Antonio but is especially active with Roy Maas' Youth Alternatives, the Kids Sports Network and the National Youth Sports Coaches Association. Pop and his wife of 23 years, Erin, team up to offer their time and caring for staff, players, families and the community of San Antonio. They have been blessed with two children, Micky and Jill.

Spurs Basketball Staff

Sam Schuler
Vice President of Basketball Operations

Sam Schuler was promoted to the position of Vice President of Basketball Operations during the summer of 1999. The reason for the promotion is clear - among his free agent finds as the Spurs Director of Player Personnel are Malik Rose and Jaren Jackson.

Schuler joined the Spurs in the summer of 1994 after spending the previous six seasons as the Director of Player Personnel with the Golden State Warriors. While with the Warriors, he earned league-wide respect by putting together a string of successful mid to late first round draft picks with Tim Hardaway, Tyrone Hill and Latrell Sprewell.

Schuler got his start on the high school level, spending 20 years as a high school coach and physical education instructor. After 17 years at Oak Creek High School in Oak Creek, Wisconsin, he joined the Milwaukee Bucks as a Scout in 1985, as a member of Don Nelson's staff. After spending three seasons with the Bucks he joined Nelson as an Assistant Coach with the Warriors in 1988. He spent one season on the sidelines with the Warriors before being promoted to the team's Director of Player Personnel position.

A 1965 graduate of the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse, Schuler is a native of Blanchardville, Wisconsin. He and his wife Jean - who was a long-time employee of the Milwaukee Bucks - have three adult children, Kimberly, Scott and David.

R.C. Buford
Vice President/Assistant General Manager

Now in his second stint with the Spurs, R.C. Buford has continued to see his title and responsibilities grow since rejoining the franchise in the summer of 1994. Originally hired as the team's Head Scout, Buford was named the Spurs' Director of Scouting in the summer of 1997. He received another promotion in the summer of 1999, being named Vice President/Assistant General Manager.

Buford began his coaching career at the University of Kansas in 1983. During his five seasons at Kansas, the Jayhawks advanced to the NCAA Tournament each year, reaching the 1986 NCAA Final Four and winning the 1988 NCAA Championship. In the summer of 1988 Buford moved to the NBA, joining the Spurs as an Assistant Coach as part of Larry Brown's staff. He spent four seasons as an assistant with the Spurs, including the 1989-90 and 1990-91 seasons when the Spurs captured back-to-back Midwest Division titles. He remained with the Spurs through the 1991-92 season.

He then joined Larry Brown as the first assistant with the Los Angeles Clippers. During their tenure, the Clippers enjoyed their best seasons in Los Angeles, posting back-to-back winning seasons and playoff appearances.

Buford served as an Assistant Coach with the University of Florida during the 1993-94 season. The Gators enjoyed the greatest year in school history, culminating in Florida's first NCAA Final Four appearance.

Buford played at Texas A&M University and Oklahoma State before receiving his degree from Friends University.

Buford's wife, Beth, is a former player on the LPGA Tour. They are both active with the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation. Beth is a member of the Board of Directors while R.C. serves as an honorary member of the Board. R.C. also serves as a Board Member for Roy Maas' Youth Alternatives. They have two children; a son, Chase, and a daughter, C.C.

Spurs Basketball Staff

Hank Egan
Assistant Coach

With over three decades of coaching experience, Hank Egan brings a great deal of knowledge to the Spurs staff as the team's number one Assistant Coach. Prior to joining the Spurs in August of 1994, he spent 23 seasons as an NCAA Division I Head Coach.

A 1960 graduate of the Naval Academy with a bachelor's degree in engineering, Egan got his coaching start in 1966 as an Assistant Coach at the Air Force Academy. In 1971, he was named the Head Coach at Air Force and remained in that position until 1984 when he became the Head Coach at the University of San Diego. He spent 10 seasons as the Head Coach at San Diego before joining the Spurs.

In his collegiate coaching career, Egan posted a 304-311 record. He was named the West Coast Conference Coach of the Year following both the 1985-86 and 1986-87 seasons. During the 1986-87 campaign he led USD to a 24-6 mark and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. That season his squad posted the best opponent field goal percentage in the country, limiting opponents to a .401 mark from the field while giving up just 60.3 points per contest.

During his collegiate career Egan established himself as one of the top defensive coaches in the country. He was the alternate coach to USC's George Raveling for the 1984 U.S. Basketball Team and was one of the coaches at the 1984 Olympic tryouts.

Egan and his wife Judy now call San Antonio home and both are active members of the community. The couple has a pair of adult children, John and Kelly.

Paul Pressey
Assistant Coach

Now in his sixth season as an Assistant Coach with the Spurs, Paul Pressey brings two decades of NBA experience to the team's staff.

As a player, Pressey enjoyed an 11-year NBA career, appearing in a total of 724 regular season games and averaging 10.6 points and 5.6 assists per contest. He was selected by Milwaukee in the first round of the 1982 NBA Draft and spent his first eight seasons with the Bucks. He was traded to the Spurs in August of 1990 and spent two seasons in San Antonio before announcing his retirement in the summer of 1992. Known as the first "point-forward" in the NBA, Pressey was named to the All-Defensive First Team in both 1985 and 1986 and earned a spot on the All-Defensive Second Team in 1987. He enjoyed his best NBA season in 1984-85 when he averaged 16.1 points, 6.8 assists and 5.4 rebounds while shooting .517 from the field.

Prior to the 1992-93 season, Pressey was named an Assistant Coach with the Golden State Warriors. But, after the team was hit with a rash of injuries, he was forced back on the court, appearing in 18 games with the Warriors. Finally, during the 1993-94 season, he was able to spend the entire campaign on the sidelines.

Pressey was named a Spurs Assistant Coach in August of 1994. He and his wife Elizabeth are entrepreneurs, as they own and operate a pair of Meineke Muffler shops in San Antonio. The pair is active in the community and they are both involved with the SAMM's Shelter in San Antonio. The couple met at Western Texas College, in Snyder, where they were both varsity basketball players. The Pressey's have four children, Angela, Phillip, Ashley and Matthew.

Spurs Basketball Staff

Mike Budenholzer
Assistant Coach

Now in his fourth season as an Assistant Coach with the Spurs, Mike Budenholzer is an NBA veteran despite being only 30-years-old. He first joined the Spurs in the summer of 1994 as the team's Video Coordinator and served in that position for two seasons before being named an assistant. Summers are always busy for Coach Bud as he is always involved with the Spurs entry in the Rocky Mountain Revue in Salt Lake. He served as the head coach for the Spurs squad in the 1999 Revue after being an assistant the previous two years.

A four-year letterman in both basketball and golf at Pomona-Pitzer, Budenholzer was named the Outstanding Senior Athlete at Pomona College in 1992-93. During the 1993-94 season, he played professionally in Denmark for the Vejle Basketball Klub, averaging a team-high 27.5 points per game. During that time he also got his start in the coaching business, serving as the Head Coach of the Denmark Women's First Division Team.

In the spring of 1994, Mr. Budenholzer joined the Golden State Warriors staff, assisting the team's Video Coordinator before making his move to San Antonio. Budenholzer received a first-hand lesson in coaching at an early age as his father, Vince, spent 25 years as a high school and college basketball coach in Arizona before retiring in 1997.

A native of Holbrook, Arizona, Budenholzer is the youngest of seven children. He has a bachelor's degree in Politics, Philosophy and Economics from Pomona College. He and his wife Mary Bet have a son, William Vincent, who was born in June of 1998.

Joe Prunty
Video Coordinator

Joe Prunty is now in his third season as the Spurs Video Coordinator, after being named to the position in September of 1997. In addition to his responsibilities in the video room, he handles advance-scouting duties for the Spurs. Prunty spent four seasons coaching at the high school level in San Diego, working three years at the University of San Diego High School and one season at St. Augustine High School, before joining the Spurs as the team's Assistant Video Coordinator in the summer of 1996. In April of 1997, he was named an Assistant Coach at the University of San Diego. Prior to the start of the 1997-98 season, Prunty returned to San Antonio as the Spurs Video Coordinator.

A California native, Prunty is a 1991 graduate of California Poly San Luis Obispo with a bachelor's degree in Speech Communications. In addition, he spent two years at DeAnza Junior College where he was the team's starting point guard.

Prunty served as an Assistant Coach for the Spurs squad in the 1999 Rocky Mountain Revue.

Mike Brungardt
Strength and Conditioning Coach

As the Spurs Strength and Conditioning Coach, Mike Brungardt is responsible for developing and implementing a strength and conditioning program suited for each player. Since joining the Spurs in the summer of 1994, he has built the team's strength and condition program from the ground up. And he is a major reason the Spurs were virtually injury-free during the 1998-99 season.

Brungardt is an established expert in the fitness world. A founder of Strength Advantage, Inc., he still serves on the Board of Directors of the Aspen-based organization. Brungardt has co-authored four books in the conditioning field: The Strength Kit, The Complete Book of Abs, The Complete Book of Butt and Legs and The Complete Book of Shoulders and Arms. Fitness runs in the family as two of Brungardt's brothers - Kurt and Brett - are also in the strength and conditioning field.

Before entering the fitness business, Brungardt worked as a wrestling coach and a football coach at Grand Island Northwest High School in Nebraska.

A Denver native, Brungardt has his degree from Central State University. He is an avid reader and is a big fan of the symphony as well as all types of theater.

Will Sevening
Head Athletic Trainer

Now in his second season with the Spurs, Will Sevening has a tough act to follow. In his first season as the team's Head Athletic Trainer, the team was virtually injury-free and captured the 1999 NBA Championship.

Sevening is responsible for the medical and health care needs of the players as well as coordinating all aspects of the team's travel. Prior to joining the Spurs, Sevening spent four seasons as the Assistant Athletic Trainer/Strength Coach with the Indiana Pacers. He was hired as the Pacers Assistant Athletic Trainer in July of 1994, after spending two seasons in part-time positions with the team.

Born and raised in the Midwest, Sevening received his bachelor's degree in Biology from the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse in 1990. In 1992, he obtained a master's in Sports Medicine from the United States Sports Academy. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association. In addition to his experience with the Pacers, Sevening has worked the Senior Bowl, the NBA Predraft Camp in Chicago and with Butler University.

Mr. Sevening and his wife Terri - who is an intensive care nurse - have two children, Benjamin, who was born in May of 1999, and Allison, who was born on July 3, 1997, sharing the same birthdate as Will. When not spending time with his family, Sevening enjoys traveling to baseball games and has seen games in approximately 50 minor and major league ballparks.

Joe Gutzwiller
Assistant Athletic Trainer

Joe Gutzwiller might be the newest member of the Spurs basketball staff but he doesn't lack in experience. Named the team's Assistant Athletic Trainer in September of 1999, Gutzwiller spent nine seasons as the Athletic Trainer for the Grand Rapids Hoops in the CBA prior to being called-up to the NBA. During his time with the Hoops, Gutzwiller never missed a game, putting together a string of 559 consecutive games. He was honored by the team on 11/23/96 when he was on the sidelines for his 500th straight contest. A native of Batesville, Indiana, Gutzwiller attended Indiana University. After earning a bachelor's degree in physical education, he moved on to the University of South Florida, where he received his master's degree. He served as the trainer of the men's basketball team at USF before being hired by the Hoops prior to the start of the 1989-90 season. Gutzwiller is engaged to Sheryl Fenske and they will get married on July 15, 2000, in Grand Rapids.

Dr. David Schmidt
Spurs Team Physican

Dr. David Schmidt is one of the most active members of the sports community in the city of San Antonio. He serves as the Team Physican for the Spurs, the San Antonio Missions (the Los Angeles Dodgers AA affiliate) and Trinity University as well as several local high schools. A Board Certified Orthopedic Surgeon, Dr. Schmidt served as the Medical Director for the 1989 AAU Junior Olympics and the 1995 U.S. Senior Sports Classic. He was the Medical Coordinator for the 1993 U.S. Olympic Festival and served on the medical staffs of the 1995 World University Games and the 1996 Olympic Games. In addition, Dr. Schmidt is a founding Board Member and past Chairman of the San Antonio Sports Foundation.

Spurs In The Community

COMMUNITY SERVICES OVERVIEW

Success is not measured by just wins and losses. And, a great basketball club is more than a collection of superb athletes – it's a partner with its community solving problems, creating opportunities and enhancing the quality of life. We all benefit when kids stay in and succeed in school, when families are strengthened, when neighborhoods are safe, when there is affordable housing and when everyone takes the time and responsibility to make our community an even better place to learn, live and work.

The Spurs have been a partner with San Antonians for more than a quarter century and are truly dedicated to this community.

We take tremendous pride in actively serving South Texas – a diverse area with diverse needs – through financial support, recreational and educational programming, publicity and the personal involvement of Spurs management, players (current and former), coaches and the Spurs Coyote. We strive to be a catalyst for community spirit and pride through our organization's myriad of community activities and our nonprofit arm, the Spurs Foundation.

We are honored to be your friends and neighbors and are proud to have so many supporters who have joined with us in our mission.

For every assist on the court, the Spurs try to make twice as many in the community. That's a stat that makes the entire organization proud.

In the Community at a Glance ...

Spurs players, coaches, front office personnel, Silver Dancers, and the Spurs Coyote make more than 1,000 appearances in the community each year.

Annually, the Spurs support more than 2,300 local organizations with in-kind or cash contributions. These in-kind donations (tickets, autographed memorabilia, appearances, etc.) are used to raise thousands of dollars for charitable causes in the San Antonio area.

Former Spurs stars George Gervin and Johnny Moore represent the Spurs at more than 300 grand openings, golf tournaments, commencements, employee rallies, and other assorted events throughout South Texas each year.

The Spurs Wives organization has raised and donated more than $60,000 to various area charities in the last five years.

The Spurs teamed up with the Fannie Mae Foundation in 1993 forming the "Home Team" for homeownership. Since then, 40 homes have been built with ten more to be built this season.

Since its inception in 1988, the nonprofit Spurs Foundation has donated more than $3.5 million in cash and in-kind contributions to deserving South Texas children through organizations that provide basic, recreational and medical needs.

The Spurs Foundation annually awards more than $230,000 in youth programming grants and scholarships.

The Spurs educational outreach programs range in scope from student achievement recognition and literacy activities, to volunteer community service, teacher recognition, Newspapers in Education and scholarship funding.

Since 1993, the Spurs have honored an outstanding public school teacher at every Spurs home game. During the 1999-2000 season, children will be able to nominate their parents for "Parents of the Game" honors.

Spurs In The Community

The Spurs Foundation

Created in 1988, the nonprofit 501(c)(3) Spurs Foundation was established to generate goodwill and financial support for economically emotionally and/or physically disadvantaged youth in South Texas. The Spurs Foundation's volunteer board includes fans, community leaders, former Spurs players and representatives from the corporate and civic sectors.

In 1998-1999, the Spurs Foundation raised and donated more than $400,000 via charitable grants, scholarships, recreational and educational youth programs, charity tickets and Spurs memorabilia. During the past decade, more than $3.5 million has been donated to deserving youth and nonprofit organizations.

In addition to corporate and individual donations, the Spurs Foundation is supported by three major annual fundraisers: the Spurs Scramble Charity Golf Tournament, the Tip-Off Luncheon presented by Southwest Airlines and the Spring Gala and Auction presented by Southwestern Bell and Southwest Business Corporation. The entire Spurs team and coaching staff participate in these events.

Annually, proceeds from fundraising efforts enable the Spurs Foundation to:

Fund the Spurs/ Pizza Hut Drug-Free Youth Basketball League for more than 18,000 boys and girls ages 6-17. The 1999 season will mark the Drug-Free League's 10th Anniversary.

Donate more than 15,000 Spurs tickets to underprivileged youth.

Award more than $100,000 in grants to area children's charities.

Award $20,000 in scholarships to area high school seniors.

Construct 10 brand new affordable homes for first time buyers through the "Home Team" partnership.

Partner with David Robinson to recognize achievements of all kinds through Mister Robinson's Neighborhood Student Incentive Program.

Each spring the Spurs Foundation's volunteer Board of Directors selects local nonprofit children's organizations to become Spurs Foundation "featured" youth charities. For 1999-2000, the following youth organizations will receive yearlong publicity in addition to their grants:

Family Service Association; The George Gervin Youth Center; San Antonio Inner-City Games; YMCA/Camp Davis-Scott.

For a complete listing of Spurs Foundation Featured Charities since 1988, please visit the Spurs Website at www.Spurs.com.

Spurs Foundation's Annual Grant Application Process

To receive funding from the Spurs Foundation, organizations that are exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the IRS code and assist economically, emotionally and/or physically disadvantaged youth may complete grant applications that are annually reviewed by the Spurs Foundation Board of Directors. Applications for 2000-2001 Spurs Foundation grants are available by calling 210/554-7762 and have a due date of February 25, 2000.

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT THROUGH EDUCATION AND RECOGNITION

Mister Robinson's Neighborhood of Student Achievers Marks Tenth Decade

Marking a successful decade in 1999, more than 5,000 San Antonio and Austin public school students (kindergarten through high school) will be nominated by their teachers for achievements ranging from attitude, peer leadership and grade improvement, to staying in school and remaining drug-free. More than 1,000 students from area elementary, middle and high schools will be selected to receive a pair of tickets to sit in Mister Robinson's Neighborhood at a Spurs game, a Mister Robinson's Neighborhood T-shirt and an achievement certificate. David Robinson and the Spurs Foundation purchase the seats. H-E-B Grocery Stores and Nike are also program sponsors.

"My Dad's Involved With Me" Art Contest

For the second year, elementary and middle school students will be invited to participate in a Spurs art contest whereby children can express through art what they enjoy doing with their dad or another male role model. Winning artists will be rewarded with Spurs tickets for themselves and their dads. The program is designed to remind adults that children who enjoy the emotional and social support of a father are dramatically more successful in school.

NBA Reading Timeout

For the third year, the Spurs will host a Reading Timeout with a Spurs player for up to 150 children between the ages of seven and 10. The program was designed to highlight the importance of reading and provide positive reading role models. Poor reading skills are, in part, clearly attributed to many problems besetting young people including academic failure, low self-esteem, delinquency, crime and more.

Newspapers in Education/Slam Jam Geography

Sponsored by the San Antonio Express-News and the San Antonio Spurs, Slam Jam Geography, a 16-week Newspapers in Education program that teaches U.S. geography using the Spurs and the other 28 NBA cities, will again be offered. The Slam Jam curriculum also highlights math, spelling, history, reading and science. Targeted at grade levels four through 12, the program is expected to reach over 11,000 students.

Slam Dunk Reading Challenge

Elementary students will have the opportunity to participate in a reading competition to win Spurs game tickets courtesy of Southwestern Bell. The winning students will sit in the Southwestern Bell FANFiesta Fun Zone at specially selected Spurs games.

Spurs Foundation Awards $20,000 in College Scholarships

The Spurs Foundation, in partnership with City Public Service, is pleased to offer $1,000 scholarships to 10 graduating high school seniors who exhibit academic excellence, leadership, financial need and involvement in extracurricular activities.

The Spurs Foundation will also award three memorial scholarships: the $3,000 Angelo Drossos Memorial Scholarship to a Bexar County High School senior who played high school basketball, the $3,000 Colonel Maury Holden Memorial Scholarship to a graduating Boysville senior and the Craig A. Martin Memorial Scholarship to a graduating senior of a Northeast High School who plans to attend a Texas college. Angelo Drossos was one of the original owners of the Spurs and remained in the majority ownership position until 1988 when he sold the franchise to Red McCombs. Col. Holden was the Spurs treasurer for 20 years, the secretary/treasurer of the Spurs Foundation and a longtime friend of the Spurs family. Craig Martin was the son of the co-founder of the Spurs Drug-Free Youth Basketball League.

The Spurs Foundation also awards two $500 scholarships through the Texas UIL Foundation.

Spurs In The Community

Take Avery to School

This is the third year the Spurs and the Texas Jeep Dealers will again hold an essay contest for elementary school students. The essay topic is "Why Is An Education Important?" In addition to winning four Spurs tickets, Avery Johnson will visit the winner at his or her school.

Teacher Recognition Program

The Spurs recognize the important role teachers play in the lives of children and are pleased to publicly applaud those efforts which go above and beyond the call of duty for their students. The 1999-2000 season is the seventh year of the Spurs Public School Excellence in Teaching Recognition Program. One teacher and a guest will be invited to and recognized at each Spurs home game where he or she is featured on the JumboTron scoreboard.

TeamUp Program Encourages Community Service/Heightens Interest In Learning

For the fourth year, the Spurs TeamUp program will include more than 200 South Texas middle schools that will be encouraged to participate in community service activities to be eligible for cash rewards, Spurs tickets and more. The NBA TeamUp program promotes the importance of community service and recognizes young people who demonstrate a commitment to improving the quality of life in their communities. Research has shown that "service learning" promotes a heightened interest in academic learning, personal development and civic responsibility. School service projects include community beautification, mentoring, environmental activities, holiday outreach activities, assorted collections and drives, activities with seniors and more. Spurs TeamUp sponsors include H-E-B Grocery Stores, City Public Service and Taco Cabana.

"What'cha Reading" Elementary School Reading Program

Because reading is the foundation required for success in every other subject, and the health of our economy and quality of life are dependent upon young people growing to literate adulthood, the Spurs and Whataburger created this program to encourage students to spend free time reading. The What'cha Reading program rewards student's reading behaviors with special certificates and coupons for free Whataburgers, fries and drinks.

GROWING HEALTHIER KIDS THROUGH POSITIVE RECREATION

Drug-Free Youth Basketball League

In this 10th season, the Spurs/Pizza Hut Drug-Free Youth Basketball League, honorarily chaired by Spurs forward Sean Elliott and presented by Ultramar Diamond Shamrock, will offer more than 18,000 at-risk young people the opportunity to play basketball, improve their athletic skills and learn the importance of team work, cooperation, sportsmanship and discipline in a drug-free and safe environment. The non-school eight-week league targets youth ranging in age from seven-16 from less affluent city neighborhoods.

Created in 1991 by Spurs Head Coach Gregg Popovich and President of the Kids Sports Network, Frank Martin, the league plays at 75 locations supported by 26 organizations throughout South Texas.

Every player wearing the Drug-Free League uniform must play at least one quarter of each game and recite the Drug-Free Pledge out loud before the game.

> "As a member of the Spurs Drug-Free Youth Basketball League, I pledge to:
> - Be drug and alcohol-and tobacco-free and encourage others to be so as well;
> - Exhibit good sportsmanship and fair play; Work hard to be the best that I can be;
> - Respect my opponent, all officials, the rules of the league and especially myself."

Good Sportsmanship Touted – Respect for Self, Others and the Game

The Spurs and Luby's, with support from Christus Santa Rosa Children's Hospital, will implement a new fitness and sportsmanship program for San Antonio elementary children. Each area public and private elementary school will receive 100 special "Good Sportsmanship" certificates to be awarded throughout the school year by the Physical Education teachers and coaches. Winning "good sports" will also receive a complimentary Spurs Kids meal at Luby's.

Spurs In The Community

The Spurs will also honor a number of Drug-Free Youth Basketball League teams as the "City Public Service/Spurs Good Sports of the Week" at regular season Spurs games.

The NBA Sportsmanship Initiative, implemented by the NBA in conjunction with the National Federation of High School Associations, will select one area high school male and female basketball player who best represent the ideals of sportsmanship. The winners will be recognized at a Spurs home game.

Spurs/Nike Youth Basketball Camp

Each summer, girls and boys eight years and older can attend full, half or overnight Spurs/Nike Youth Basketball Camps at the University of the Incarnate Word or Blossom Athletic Center. REACHING OUT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Auction/Raffle/Volunteer Time Donations

Each year, more than 2,300 charity organizations, fundraisers, school functions and other community events receive donations or in-kind contributions from the Spurs. These donations range from tickets and autographed memorabilia to player and Coyote appearances. Donated items are typically used as auction items, raffle and door prizes or school incentive items. Thousands of dollars are raised for charitable causes as a result of these donations. In addition, Spurs employees donate countless volunteer hours in the community from school and church activities to disaster relief. For information on any of the Spurs community outreach programs, please call (210) 554-7762.

Champions Champion For Local Causes

The current NBA champions, as well as former Spurs greats, coaches and Spurs wives, are available to and participate in a number of audio and video public service announcements (PSA) from promoting sportsmanship, parental involvement and strong study habits to eliminating child abuse. Requests for participation in a PSA must be submitted with a script at least eight weeks in advance of airing time.

Charity Begins at Home ... Games

Providing underprivileged children and adults with the opportunity to attend a Spurs game is a goal of the Spurs organization, Spurs Foundation, Spurs players and Spurs sponsors. More than 300 people per night attend Spurs games compliments of the aforementioned who underwrite ticket sections in the Alamodome. Seats are reserved every game for South and Central Texas children's groups and nonprofit organizations – groups that otherwise would not be able to attend a game. Sections are funded through the Spurs Foundation. For information, please call (210) 554-1414.

The Alamodome

The Alamodome - which opened on May 15, 1993 - is unlike any other stadium in the world due to its design and versatility. The facility has a cable-suspended roof, a retractable seating system, a flexible floor grid system, formal entries and large food court areas.

The Spurs moved into the Alamodome prior to the start of the 1993-94 season. They kicked off their first year in the facility in grand fashion as an NBA opening night record crowd of 36,523 was on hand on 11/5/93 as the Spurs beat Golden State 95-90 in the first regular season NBA game ever played in the Dome. Over the last six seasons, over five million fans have seen the Spurs play in the Alamodome.

But the Alamodome is used for more than the Spurs. With the addition of the Alamodome, the city of San Antonio has become a major player in the sports world. The first major sporting event in the Alamodome was the U.S. Olympic Festival-'93, which took place in July of 1993.

Since that time the Dome has played host to some of the biggest events in the sporting world including the 1996 NBA All-Star Game and the 1998 NCAA Final Four. In addition, the Alamodome has hosted numerous NCAA football and basketball games, NFL games, NHL games, world-championship boxing matches and concerts. Wayne Gretzky and the L.A. Kings, Emmitt Smith and the Dallas Cowboys and Mick Jagger and the Rolling Stones are among those who have played in the Alamodome over the last six years. San Antonio and the Dome also serve as the home of the annual Sylvania Alamo Bowl.

The Alamodome has several configurations, ranging from 5,000 seats for small conventions to over 65,000 for major football games. For Spurs games, the Alamodome holds 20,557 on a nightly basis. In addition, for selected games, the Spurs open the upper level of the facility, pushing capacity to over 34,000.

In its basketball configuration the Alamodome features 32 luxury suites and a section of over 3,500 club level seats that provide Spurs fans with a pair of upscale viewing options.

The total cost of the Alamodome was $186 million and, thanks to a half-cent sales tax that was in effect from 1989-94, the Dome is completely debt free.

Spurs Tickets

Individual game tickets can be purchased in person at the Spurs Ticket Office located in the Southwest corner of the Alamodome. Tickets can also be purchased at all local Ticketmaster locations as well as the Spurs Shop, located at 600 East Market Street.

Spurs 1998-99 Season Notes

TOUGH D: For the second straight season, the Spurs set an NBA record for opponent field goal percentage ... opponents shot a mere .402 (1,631-4,061) from the floor vs. the Spurs during the 1998-99 season – an NBA record dating back to the 1970-71 season when the league began to track the statistic ... the Spurs were 21-1 when they held an opponent under .400 from the field ... the Spurs broke the old NBA record, which they had set during the 1997-98 campaign, holding their opponents to a .411 (2,737-6,656) mark from the field ... here are the lowest opponent FG percentages recorded in NBA history:

TEAM	SEASON	OPP. FG%
San Antonio Spurs	1998-99	.402 (1,621-4,061)
New York Knicks	1998-99	.403 (1,528-3,790)
San Antonio Spurs	1997-98	.411 (2,737-6,656)
Miami Heat	1998-99	.411 (1,565-3,805)
Atlanta Hawks	1998-99	.413 (1,598-3,873)

RED HOT: After starting the season with a 6-8 record, the Spurs were 31-5 (.861) over their final 36 games to finish with an NBA-best 37-13 record ... during the 31-5 stretch, which started on March 1, the Spurs were 17-1 (.944) in the Alamodome and 14-4 (.778) on the road ... the Jazz were the next best team after March 1 with a 26-11 (.703) mark ... the Spurs were 10th in the Western Conference and 20th overall in the NBA when they were 6-8 on 3/1 ... the Spurs were 14-2 in March, 13-3 in April and 4-0 in May ... Tim Duncan was the NBA's Player of the Month in March and Gregg Popovich was named the Coach of the Month in April ... knowing they had to win their final five games of the season to gain the home-court advantage, the Spurs did just that ... San Antonio closed the year with wins at Vancouver, vs. Portland, vs. Utah, at Portland and at Golden State to finish tied with the Jazz (Spurs won the tie-breaker with a 2-1 season series advantage vs. the Jazz) ... after April 1, the Spurs were 8-0 (5-0 at home, 3-0 on the road) against the top four teams in the Western Conference – Utah, Portland, the Lakers and Houston ... over that same time, the Spurs were 10-2 (7-0 at home, 3-2 on the road) against Western Conference playoff teams ... the Spurs finished the regular season with a 13-game home winning streak.

RUDE HOSTS: The Spurs were 21-4 (.840) during the regular season in the Alamodome ... it was the Spurs highest home winning percentage since the club joined the NBA prior to the 1976-77 season.

HITTING 100: Only one opponent scored 100 points in the Alamodome during the 1998-99 season ... the Utah Jazz defeated the Spurs 101-87 on 2/28 in the Dome ... Utah became the first team to reach 100 points in the Dome in over a calendar year ... the Seattle SuperSonics were the last visiting team to reach 100 in the Dome, defeating the Spurs 106-105 on 2/11/98 ... during the last two seasons, Spurs opponents have scored 100 or more just four times in 66 regular season games in the Dome.

NBA In The Community

The NBA believes in championship performances, both on the court and in the community. That's why each year, the league, its teams and players dedicate time and resources to helping their respective communities through extensive outreach programs, team foundations and public service announcements, all addressing a variety of important social issues.

This year, the league will continue to focus on serving the needs and recognizing the accomplishments of young people through a series of initiatives that focus on issues such as volunteerism, youth literacy, child abuse prevention and sportsmanship.

Now in it's fourth year, the NBA TeamUp Program aims to build self-esteem and leadership skills by encouraging students to volunteer to improve their communities. With the involvement of all 29 NBA teams, the initiative has provided more than 100,000 youth with service opportunities and has recognized more than 40,000 for their outstanding dedication to volunteerism. The league and its players also generate awareness for the issue through a public service campaign and television specials that reach tens of millions of viewers each year.

The NBA continues to demonstrate its commitment to youth service through a partnership with America's Promise "The Alliance For Youth," led by General Colin Powell. This year, the NBA also joined forces with Youth Service America, a resource center and alliance of organizations committed to community and national service.

In 1995, the NBA partnered with Reading Is Fundamental (RIF), the leading nonprofit youth literacy organization in the United States, to ensure that today's young people have the necessary resources to become successful readers. This year's outreach will include the continuation of the successful "March is NBA Reading Month" campaign, which includes reading incentive programs, reading "Timeouts" with NBA players and staff, and book distributions. A series of PSAs featuring NBA players, and focusing on the fun and fundamentals of reading, supports the initiative.

Implemented in conjunction with the National Federation of State High Schools Associations and the Canadian School Sports Federation, the NBA/WNBA Sportsmanship Initiative aims to foster on-court sportsmanship in amateur and professional basketball competition. The program includes the NBA and WNBA Sportsmanship Awards; a certificate program that rewards high school athletes and coaches who demonstrate sportsmanship; and a public service campaign featuring NBA and WNBA players.

In addition, the NBA supports the efforts of Prevent Child Abuse America, the King Holiday, Black History Month, Gallaudet University and the Thurgood Marshall Scholarship Fund.

Spurs Playoff Notes

PLAYOFF RECAP: The Spurs cruised through the 1999 Playoffs with a 15-2 record, equaling the second-best winning percentage in post-season history with a .882 mark ... the Spurs join the 1988-89 Pistons and the 1990-91 Bulls as teams that have gone 15-2 in their championship run ... the Philadelphia 76ers hold the best mark of all-time, finishing with a 12-1 record (.923) en route to the 1983 Championship ... the Spurs beat the Timberwolves 3-1 before sweeping the Lakers and the Trail Blazers 4-0 to advance to the NBA Finals ... Tim Duncan was the Finals MVP - averaging 27.4 points, 14.0 rebounds, 2.4 assists and 2.20 blocks in 45.8 minutes in the series - as the Spurs defeated the Knicks 4-1 to claim their first NBA Title.

GOOD FIRST IMPRESSION: The Spurs became just the ninth team to win an NBA Championship in their first appearance in the NBA Finals ... it has only been done three times since the NBA/ABA merger prior to the 1976-77 season ... here are the nine teams to win the title in their first-ever NBA Finals appearance:

1946-47	Philadelphia Warriors	1950-51	Rochester Royals	1976-77	Portland Trail Blazers
1947-48	Baltimore Bullets	1956-57	Boston Celtics	1990-91	Chicago Bulls
1948-49	Minneapolis Lakers	1970-71	Milwaukee Bucks	1998-99	San Antonio Spurs

REMEMBERING THE ABA: Prior to the 1976-77 season, the ABA and the NBA merged ... the San Antonio Spurs, Indiana Pacers, Denver Nuggets and New Jersey Nets moved to the NBA from the ABA ... the Spurs are the first of the former ABA teams to reach and win the NBA Finals ... the Spurs are 1-4 in NBA Conference Finals and 1-0 in the NBA Finals ... the Pacers are 0-4 in the NBA Conference Finals while the Nuggets are 0-2 ... the Nets have never appeared in an NBA Conference Finals series.

ROLLING: After losing Game 2 to Minnesota on 5/11 in the Dome, the Spurs reeled off 12 straight wins before falling to the Knicks in Game 3 of the Finals on 6/21... the Spurs 12-game playoff winning streak is the longest winning streak in a single post-season NBA history ... the 1988-89 Los Angeles Lakers won 11 straight post-season games before falling to the Pistons in the NBA Finals ... during the 12-game streak, the Spurs recorded six straight road wins which equals the 1991 Bulls with the second longest road winning streak in playoff history (the 1995 Rockets won seven straight road games).

SWEEP STREAKS: With a 4-0 sweep of the Los Angeles Lakers in the Western Conference Semifinals and a 4-0 sweep of the Portland Trail Blazers in the Western Conference Finals, the Spurs became just the fifth team to sweep two best-of-seven series in one playoff run ... San Antonio is only the third team to sweep consecutive best-of-seven series ... here are the four previous teams to sweep two best-of-seven series:

Season	Team	Conf. Semifinals	Conf. Finals	NBA Finals
1981-82	Los Angeles Lakers	4-0 vs. Phoenix	4-0 vs. San Antonio	4-2 vs. Philadelphia
1982-83	Philadelphia 76ers	4-0 vs. New York	4-1 vs. Milwaukee	4-0 vs. Los Angeles
1988-89	Detroit Pistons	4-0 vs. Milwaukee	4-2 vs. Chicago	4-0 vs. Los Angeles
1988-89	Los Angeles Lakers	4-0 vs. Seattle	4-0 vs. Phoenix	0-4 vs. Detroit
1998-99	San Antonio Spurs	4-0 vs. Los Angeles	4-0 vs. Portland	4-1 vs. New York

KEEPING UP THE DEFENSE: The key for the Spurs in the playoffs was defense, just as it had been during the regular season ... in the 1999 Playoffs, the Spurs held opponents to NBA lows in points per game (81.2 ppg), field goal percentage (.399 - 526-of-1,319) and three-point percentage (.257 - 47-of-183)... the Trail Blazers scored only 304 points in the Western Conference Finals (76.0 ppg), setting an NBA record for the fewest points scored by a team in a four-game series... in the Finals, the Spurs held the Knicks to just 399 points (79.8 ppg), setting a record for the fewest points scored in a 5-game series in the Finals... the Knicks also set records for the fewest field goals made (with 154) and the fewest assists (with 70) in a 5-game series... the best offensive showing by a Spurs opponent in the 1999 NBA Playoffs was the Lakers 107 points on .446 (41-92) shooting in Game Four... the Lakers also scored 91 points in Game Three... no other opponent reached 90 points against San Antonio in the post-season.

PLAYOFF REGULARS: The Spurs have qualified for the playoffs 19 times in their 23-year NBA history ... only the Lakers and Trail Blazers - each with 22 post-season appearances - have made more trips to the playoffs during that 23-year span ... along with the Spurs, both the Rockets and the Suns have been to the playoffs 19 times since 1976-77.

ANNUAL APPEARANCE: Mario Elie is one of 18 players to have never missed the playoffs in his NBA career (minimum of three seasons) ... Elie has played in the playoffs in each of his nine NBA seasons ... only John Stockton (15 years), Karl Malone (14), Scottie Pippen (12), Dan Majerle (11) and Clifford Robinson (10) have longer NBA careers without missing the postseason ... Malik Rose is another current Spur who has never missed the playoffs in his career ... Rose has advanced to the postseason in each of his three years in the league.

TAKE FOUR: Steve Kerr became just the second player in NBA history to win consecutive NBA Championships with two different teams ... Kerr won three straight with the Bulls before winning his fourth title in 1999 with the Spurs... the first to accomplish the feat was Frank Saul of the 1950-51 Rochester Royals and the 1951-52 Minneapolis Lakers.

SPURS PLAYOFF FACTS: The Spurs 4-0 sweep of the Lakers in the Western Conference Semifinals was the club's first-ever sweep of a best-of-seven series ... the Spurs were 14-0 in games in which they led at the half ... when the Spurs held a lead heading into the fourth quarter, they were 14-0 ... the Spurs were 8-0 when shooting .450 or better from the floor ... when Avery Johnson handed out at least eight assists, the Spurs were 9-0 ... the Spurs were 6-0 when at least five players scored in double figures ... the Spurs were 8-0 when Jaren Jackson scored in double-figures ... the 39,554 fans in the Alamodome for Game Two of the NBA Finals on 6/18 was the second-largest crowd to ever see an NBA Finals game and the largest attendance in Spurs history ... the Spurs are 46-36 (.561) in nine playoff appearances during the David Robinson era ... in his last two playoff appearances, Avery Johnson is averaging 14.6 points on .528 (152-288) shooting, 6.9 assists, 2.2 rebounds and 1.16 steals in 38.2 minutes in 26 games.

Key Dates In Spurs History

OCTOBER 10, 1973

In the first game in San Antonio history, the Spurs fell to the San Diego Conquistadors 121-106 in the HemisFair Arena...Rich Jones led the Spurs in scoring with 25 points...the Spurs lost their first four games before claiming their first win on 10/16/73 when they beat the Virginia Squires, 116-106.

JANUARY 30, 1974

After a month of fighting, Angelo Drossos pulled off the biggest deal in Spurs history, purchasing George Gervin from the Virginia Squires...the transaction wasn't a simple one due to legal battles between the Spurs, the Squires and the ABA League Office...in fact, at one point, the 21-year-old Gervin went into hiding for a week as the three parties battled it out...in the end Drossos and the Spurs won, and the rest, as they say, is history.

JANUARY 28, 1975

On this date the city of San Antonio hosted the 1975 ABA All-Star Game...on the West squad were three Spurs, George Gervin, James Silas and Swen Nater...but the East team dominated the game, posting a 151-124 win in front of 10,449 in the HemisFair Arena...the coaches that night were Kevin Loughery and Larry Brown.

OCTOBER 22, 1976

The Spurs made their NBA debut, beating the 76ers 121-118 in Philadelphia...Billy Paultz paced the Spurs with 27 points...also making his NBA debut that night was Julius Erving of the Sixers...later in the week, on 10/27/76, the Spurs played their first NBA game in the HemisFair Arena, beating Phoenix 115-106 behind a 41-point effort by Larry Kenon...the Spurs finished their first NBA season with a 44-38 record and a trip to the playoffs.

APRIL 9, 1978

George Gervin set an NBA record scoring 33 points in the second quarter as the Spurs fell to New Orleans 153-132 in the final game of the regular season...earlier in the day David Thompson had scored 73 points and entering the game Gervin knew that he needed to score 58 points to edge out Thompson for the 1978 NBA scoring title...Gervin came through...he had 53 at halftime and finished the game with 63 points - despite sitting out the fourth quarter - to claim his first scoring title.

APRIL 15, 1983

Spurs announced their All Decade Team...on the squad were George Gervin, Artis Gilmore, Mike Mitchell, James Silas and Mark Olberding...the Iceman was named the Spurs Player of the Decade...the same night Artis Gilmore scored his 20,000th career point.

FEBRUARY 28, 1984

The Spurs retired the number 13 worn by James Silas...it was the first number ever retired by the Spurs franchise and Silas earned the honor...in his career he appeared in 618 games, scoring 10,290 points and handing out 2,406 assists...Silas - who was an original Spur – enjoyed his best season in 1975-76 when he averaged 23.8 points, 5.4 assists and 4.0 rebounds...his career was cut short by a knee injury that he suffered in November of 1976.

MAY 17, 1987

The Spurs won the NBA Draft Lottery in New York...Bob Bass was on hand with a lucky Red Chameleon...the good luck charm worked as the Spurs beat out six other teams and won the number one pick in the 1987 Draft, which they used to select All-Star center David Robinson.

DECEMBER 5, 1987

On this night the Spurs retired the number 44 jersey worn by George Gervin...15,786 were on hand to pay tribute to the greatest player in Spurs history...in his 12 seasons with the Spurs, the Iceman scored 23,602 points and led the NBA in scoring four times.

MAY 27, 1988

Red McCombs purchased the Spurs for $47 million, becoming the first principal owner of the franchise ...the transaction took place after months of negotiations between McCombs and the Spurs original majority owner, Angelo Drossos.

Key Dates In Spurs History

NOVEMBER 4, 1989

In his first NBA game rookie center David Robinson led the Spurs to a 106-98 win over the Lakers in front of a crowd of 15,868 in the HemisFair Arena...Robinson didn't miss a beat despite the fact that he had spent the two previous years serving as a Navy ensign, stationed at King's Bay, GA...the Admiral finished the game with 23 points and 17 rebounds.

FEBRUARY 6, 1990

The Spurs beat the Atlanta Hawks 105-94 to claim their 20th consecutive win in the HemisFair Arena...the 20-game home winning streak is still the longest in franchise history...the Spurs finished the season with a 56-26 record, including a 34-7 mark in the Arena.

MARCH 26, 1993

On this date a group of 22 investors purchased the franchise from Red McCombs...the two leaders of the group were Bob Coleman and Robert McDermot...the original deal was struck on 2/19/93 between the group and McCombs, then a month later the move – with some minor changes - was approved by the NBA League Office.

MAY 20, 1993

The end of an era...after calling the HemisFair Arena home for 20 years the Spurs played their final game in the Arena falling to the Suns 102-100 in Game 6 of their Western Conference Semifinal series...in those 20 seasons, the Spurs played 893 regular season and playoff games in the Arena, attracting 9,383,257 fans.

MAY 23, 1995

On this date the NBA announced its 1994-95 Most Valuable Player - Mr. David Robinson...the Admiral led the Spurs to a 62-20 record - the best mark in the NBA in 1994-95 - and became the first player in San Antonio history to win the award...Robinson was among league leaders in five categories: scoring, rebounding, blocked shots, steals and field goal percentage.

FEBRUARY 11, 1996

One of the most exciting weekends in San Antonio history was capped with the 46th Annual NBA All-Star Game...a crowd of 36,037 packed the Alamodome and saw the East defeat the West 129-118 despite solid efforts from Spurs All-Stars David Robinson and Sean Elliott...the entire 1996 NBA All-Star Weekend was a hit as, for three days, the eyes of the world were focused on the Alamo City.

MAY 6, 1996

In Springfield, Massachusetts, George Gervin was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame...the Iceman is the only Spur ever to be elected to the Hall of Fame...the honor is one that Gervin deserves...in his 14-year professional career he scored 26,595 points which is the eighth highest total in history.

MAY 17, 1997

Ten years after winning the 1987 NBA Draft Lottery, the Spurs won the 1997 Lottery and the right to select Wake Forest star Tim Duncan...winning the lottery was one of the few bright spots for the Spurs during the 1996-97 season...they limped through the year without David Robinson and others, finishing with a 20-62 mark.

MARCH 20, 1998

On this date the Spurs retired the number #00 of point guard Johnny Moore...in his nine seasons with the Spurs, Moore appeared in 519 games, averaging 9.4 points and 7.4 assists per game...Moore – whose career was cut short by Desert Fever – joined George Gervin and James Silas becoming just the third player in Spurs history to have their number retired by the franchise.

JUNE 25, 1999

An Avery Johnson 18-foot jumper with 47.0 seconds left gave the Spurs a 78-77 lead over the New York Knicks in Madison Square Garden in Game 5 of the 1999 NBA Finals...neither team scored another point, as the Spurs held on to win the game and capture their first NBA Championship.

1973-74 SEASON NOTES

- The San Antonio Spurs were formed in the summer of 1973 when the Dallas Chaparrals of the ABA were sold to a group of San Antonio investors and moved to the Alamo City.
- Original ownership group was made up of 27 individuals led by John Schaefer, Red McCombs, Art Burdick and Angelo Drossos.
- The first game in franchise history was a 121-106 loss to the San Diego Conquistadors on 10/10/73 in front of 5,879 fans in the HemisFair Arena... the Spurs starting five that night were Rich Jones, Goo Kennedy, Bob Netolicky, Joe Hamilton and James Silas.
- In November the Spurs obtained Swen Nater from the Virginia Squires in exchange for cash and draft picks... Nater was the Spurs leading rebounder in both 1973-74 and 1974-75.
- On 1/30/74 - in perhaps the biggest move in franchise history - the Spurs purchased George Gervin from the Virginia Squires... the Iceman went on to play in 11 straight All-Star Games for the Spurs.

1974-75 SEASON NOTES

- The City of San Antonio hosted the 1975 ABA All-Star Game... a crowd of 10,449 was on hand in the HemisFair Arena as the East beat the West 151-124 on 1/28/75... the Western squad featured three Spurs - George Gervin, Swen Nater and James Silas.
- During the off-season Angelo Drossos was named Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer and John Begzos was named the Spurs General Manager.
- On 12/13/74 the Spurs hired Bob Bass as their Head Coach, replacing Tom Nissalke.
- George Gervin established himself as a true star... during the regular season he was 7th in the ABA in scoring, averaging 23.4 ppg, and was also among league leaders in rebounds and blocks... Gervin was named to the All-ABA Second Team and appeared in his second ABA All-Star Game... but Gervin's big breakthrough came in the post-season when Bob Bass moved Iceman from small forward to two-guard... Gervin averaged 34.0 ppg in the series vs. Indiana and the rest, as they say, is history.
- On 2/5/75 George Gervin scored 51 points as the Spurs beat Memphis 143-119... Gervin's 51 points that night is the Spurs franchise record for the most points scored in an ABA game.

1975-76 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs made a pair of big moves prior to the start of the season... on 6/3/75 the Spurs sent Swen Nater to the New York Nets for Larry Kenon... in a related move on the same day the Spurs obtained Mike Gale from the Nets for cash... then on 9/8/75 the Spurs sent Chuck Terry, Rich Jones, Bobby Warren and Kim Hughes to the Nets in exchange for Billy Paultz... the moves paid off as both Kenon and Paultz were ABA All-Stars during the 1975-76 campaign.

- James Silas - the Spurs leading scorer and playmaker during the season - broke his right ankle in the first game of their playoff series with the Nets... the injury put a damper on a great season for Silas... he was the first Spur ever named to the All-ABA First Team... he finished the season ranked sixth in the ABA in scoring, fourth in FG percentage, fourth in FT percentage, fifth in assists and ninth in steals.

- The Spurs ranked second in the ABA in attendance, averaging 8,003 fans per game... the highlight was a then-record crowd of 11,717 who watched a 112-109 loss to the Nets on 11/15/75.

- As a team the Spurs shot an incredible .815 (1905-2337) from the free throw line during the 1975-76 season... five Spurs shot .800 or better from the line... James Silas led the way with a .872 mark, George Gervin shot .862, Allan Bristow had a .848 mark, Coby Dietrick was .829 and Mike Gale shot an even .800.

1977-78 SEASON NOTES

- During the summer of 1977, the roof at the HemisFair Arena was raised to accommodate 6,000 new seats.
- The Spurs got off to a slow start as injuries sidelined James Silas (knee), George Karl (knee) and Mike Gale (ankle)... after starting 16-14 the Spurs got hot at midseason to claim their first NBA Division Title... at one point, the Spurs posted 18 wins in a 22-game period.
- Both George Gervin and Larry Kenon were named starters in the 1978 NBA All-Star Game which was played in Atlanta on 2/5.
- George Gervin turned in one of the greatest single game performances in franchise history on 4/9 in New Orleans... going into the final day of the season Gervin and David Thompson were battling for the NBA Scoring Title... Thompson had played earlier in the day and appeared to claim the title as he poured in 73 points... but Gervin wasn't ready to concede the title... by halftime of the Spurs-Jazz game, Ice had 53 points - thanks to 33 points in the second quarter, which still stands as the most points ever scored in a single quarter... the Spurs lost the game 153-132 but Gervin finished with 63 points and claimed his first of four NBA Scoring Titles.

1979-80 SEASON NOTES

- Prior to the season, the Spurs purchased the contract of Kevin Restani from Milwaukee... the Spurs also obtained guard Johnny Moore from Seattle... but Moore - who today is the Spurs all-time assists leader - was released during the preseason and didn't see his first action with the Spurs until the 1980-81 season.
- The Spurs spent the entire season battling to stay above the .500 mark... on 3/1 Bob Bass replaced Doug Moe as Head Coach.
- On 1/16 the Spurs sent Billy Paultz to Houston in exchange for John Shumate.
- Once again, George Gervin was the big gun for the Spurs... he was named the MVP of the 1980 NBA All-Star Game as he had 34 points and 10 rebounds in the contest (he remains the only Spur ever to be named MVP of an All-Star Game)... on 1/8 vs. Denver, Gervin exploded for 53 points, which is the most points ever scored in the HemisFair Arena, where the Spurs played from '73-74 through '92-93... and, of course, the Iceman won his third straight NBA Scoring Title, averaging a career-best 33.1 points per game.

1980-81 SEASON NOTES

- Prior to the season, the Spurs named Stan Albeck Head Coach.
- The Spurs, the Houston Rockets and the expansion Dallas Mavericks were all placed in the Midwest Division in the Western Conference
- The Spurs were busy in the off-season... draft picks Reggie Johnson and Michael Wiley were instant contributors for the Spurs... after being waived the previous season, Johnny Moore was re-signed and led the team in assists in his first NBA season... and finally, to add experience and size, the Spurs signed free agent George Johnson and obtained Dave Corzine in a trade with Washington.
- "The Bruise Brothers" were officially born on 12/30 as the Spurs handed out free posters which featured George Johnson, Dave Corzine, Kevin Restani, Paul Griffin, Mark Olberding and Reggie Johnson
- George Johnson became the first Spur to win an NBA Blocked Shots title, averaging 3.39 blocks per game... he put his name in the Spurs record-books on 2/24 vs. Golden State... in the Spurs 131-126 win Johnson set a pair of Spurs franchise records - the most blocks in a game, with 13 and the most blocks in a half, with 11 in the second.

1981-82 SEASON NOTES

- The end of an era came in June as the Spurs sent James Silas - the last original Spur and team captain - to Cleveland... Silas spent nine years in San Antonio and is one of just three players in franchise history to have had their jersey retired.
- The Spurs started the season with a 9-1 mark and held the top spot in the Midwest Division the entire season.
- On 12/24 the Spurs obtained Mike Mitchell and Roger Phegley from Cleveland in exchange for Ron Brewer and Reggie Johnson.
- In a record-setting game on 3/6 the Spurs posted a 171-166 triple-overtime win over Milwaukee in the HemisFair Arena... the 171 points by the Spurs is a club record for the most points scored in a game and the 337 points scored by both teams is the second highest combined point total in NBA history.
- Three different Spurs won individual statistical titles in the league... George Gervin captured his fourth NBA scoring title, averaging 32.3 ppg... George Johnson won his second consecutive blocked shots title, averaging 3.12 bpg... and second-year guard Johnny Moore led the NBA in assists, averaging 9.6 assists per contest.

1984-85 SEASON NOTES

- Cotton Fitzsimmons was named Head Coach in May.
- The Spurs welcomed several new faces during the season... first round draft pick Alvin Robertson was an instant contributor as a rookie... guard John Lucas was traded to Houston on 10/4/84... then in December the Spurs made four deals in a 10-day period: Mark McNamara was sent to Kansas City for Billy Knight... Jeff Cook was obtained from Cleveland in exchange for Edgar Jones and cash... Mark Iavaroni was acquired from the Sixers for a draft choice... and, finally, Fred Roberts was shipped to Utah for a pair of second round picks.
- Mike Mitchell led the team in scoring, averaging 22.2 ppg... this broke a streak of eight straight seasons in which George Gervin had led the Spurs in scoring... Mitchell and Gervin both hit point plateaus during the season... Mitchell scored his 10,000th career point vs. Cleveland on 11/10 and Iceman scored his 25,000th point on 2/22 at Phoenix.
- Johnny Moore finished the season ranked third in the NBA in assists, with 10.0 apg, and ranked second in the league in steals, with 2.79 spg... Moore turned in one of the best games of his life vs. Golden State on 1/8 when he finished with 26 points, 13 assists, 11 rebounds and 9 steals.
- The Spurs set a franchise record, shooting .513 percent from the field during the 1984-85 season.

1985-86 SEASON NOTES

- During the off-season there was a major debate as to whether the Spurs would continue to play in the HemisFair Arena or move to the Freeman Coliseum.
- An era ended on 10/24 as the Spurs traded George Gervin to Chicago in exchange for David Greenwood.
- Tragedy struck the Spurs on 12/26 when point guard Johnny Moore was hospitalized with Desert Fever... the sickness ended the season for Moore and cut his promising career short... after contracting the disease Moore returned to play in 112 games with the Spurs, but never regained the form he had shown in his early days.
- Alvin Robertson was the Spurs bright spot during the 1985-86 season... the second-year guard led the NBA in steals, averaging 3.67 per contest... he set NBA records for the most steals in a single season, with 301, and for the highest steals-per-game average, with 3.67 spg... he recorded one of four quadruple-doubles in NBA history finishing with 20 points, 11 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals vs. the Suns on 2/18.

1987-88 SEASON NOTES

- The biggest day of the season occurred during the summer and happened off the court... on 6/22 the Spurs used the number one pick in the 1987 NBA Draft to select David Robinson of the Naval Academy... on the same day the Spurs shipped aging center Artis Gilmore to Chicago in exchange for a second-round selection in the 1988 Draft.
- Robinson signed a contract with the Spurs on 11/6 and - before beginning his two-year tour with the Navy – the Admiral witnessed the Spurs lose to the defending NBA Champion Lakers 133-124.
- The Spurs paid tribute to George Gervin on 12/5 as his #44 jersey was retired by the franchise, joining James Silas as the second player in Spurs history to have his number retired.

1988-89 SEASON NOTES

- On 5/28 Red McCombs became full owner of the Spurs, purchasing the team from his fellow investors for $47 million... one of McCombs first moves was to fire Bob Weiss and hire Larry Brown as Head Coach.
- The Spurs finished the season with a 21-61 record... the Spurs were just 3-38 on the road during the year and set a club record with 20-straight losses on the road.
- A total of 22 players suited up for the Spurs during the season and Greg Anderson was the only player to appear in all 82 games for the Spurs.
- Rookie Willie Anderson was one of the few bright spots for San Antonio... he was named to the NBA All-Rookie First Team and he became the first Spur rookie ever to lead the team in scoring, averaging 18.6 points per game. Anderson was the runner-up in Rookie of the Year voting behind only Mitch Richmond of the Kings.

1989-90 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs made several moves during the off-season and assembled a new-look team for the 1989-90 season. on 5/28 the Spurs obtained All-Star forward Terry Cummings from Milwaukee in exchange for Alvin Robertson... in the 1989 NBA Draft the Spurs selected forward Sean Elliott with the third overall choice... and on 8/28 the Spurs sent Johnny Dawkins and Jay Vincent to the Sixers in exchange for Maurice Cheeks, David Wingate and Christian Welp... in addition, Caldwell Jones and Zarko Paspalj were signed as free agents... of course the biggest addition was David Robinson, who completed his two-year Navy commitment... in all nine new faces were on the Spurs 1989-90 roster.

- All the moves worked as the Spurs set what was an NBA record at the time for the biggest turnaround between two seasons, increasing their win total by 35 over the 1988-89 campaign (56 wins vs. 21 in '88-89).

- David Robinson was named the NBA Rookie of the Month each month of the season, joining Ralph Sampson as only the second player in NBA history to claim a clean sweep of the Rookie of the Month award. (Tim Duncan also accomplished the feat during the 1997-98 season).

- The Spurs made one final big move during the season, sending Mo Cheeks to the Knicks in exchange for Rod Strickland on 2/21... on the same day the Spurs traded guard Vernon Maxwell to the Rockets for cash.

1990-91 SEASON NOTES

- During the off-season, the Spurs picked up Paul Pressey and Sidney Green via trades and Dwayne Schintzius, Tony Massenburg and Sean Higgins in the 1990 NBA Draft.
- David Robinson was the top vote-getter in the Western Conference and earned the starting center spot in the 1991 NBA All-Star Game... Robinson led the NBA in rebounding, becoming the first Spur ever to capture an NBA Rebounding Title.
- The Spurs 55-27 record could have been better, but guard Rod Strickland missed 21 games after breaking his hand in a fight and in the 21 games he missed, the Spurs were just 10-11.
- The Spurs got win number 1,000 in franchise history on 2/26 with a 102-101 overtime win over Portland.
- Terry Cummings scored his 15,000th point on 4/5 at Chicago.

1991-92 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs obtained forward Antoine Carr from the Kings on 9/23 in exchange for Dwayne Schintzius... in December the Spurs signed a pair of free agents - Donald Royal and Vinnie Johnson - and waived two popular players - Avery Johnson and Jud Buechler.
- After missing the first six weeks of the season due to a contract dispute, Rod Strickland joined the Spurs on 12/23.
- Following a rough stretch in December and January, Vice President of Basketball Operations Bob Bass replaced Larry Brown as Head Coach.
- On 3/21, in just his third season with the Spurs, David Robinson passed George Gervin and became the Spurs all-time career leader in blocked shots.
- The Spurs season came to a grinding halt when David Robinson went down with a torn ligament in his left thumb... Robinson underwent surgery on 4/1 and missed the final 14 games of the season... with Robinson and Willie Anderson out of the line-up the Spurs were swept by the Suns in the First Round of the playoffs.

1992-93 SEASON NOTES

- Under new Head Coach Jerry Tarkanian the Spurs started the season 1-4... the Tarkanian era didn't last long... on 12/18 - with the team posting a 9-11 record - Tark was fired... 24 hours later he was replaced by John Lucas... the team responded by winning 24 of their next 28 after the coaching change.
- The Spurs also made some changes on the court... point guard Avery Johnson was signed as a free agent on 11/19 and on 12/9 the Spurs obtained J.R. Reid from Charlotte in exchange for Sidney Green and a first round draft choice... other new faces included Dale Ellis and Lloyd Daniels.
- Both David Robinson and Sean Elliott represented the Spurs in the 1993 All-Star Game.
- The Spurs closed a part of their history-books on 5/20 when they fell to the Suns 102-100 in Game Six of the Western Conference Semifinals... the game was the last one the Spurs would ever play in the HemisFair Arena, their home since they moved to San Antonio in the summer of 1973

1993-94 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs parted with a pair of popular players prior to the start of the season... Avery Johnson left the team as a free agent, signing with the Warriors, and Sean Elliott was traded to Detroit for Dennis Rodman.
- David Robinson and Dennis Rodman made NBA history, as for the first time in league history a pair of teammates led the NBA in scoring and rebounding respectively... Robinson captured the scoring title, averaging 29.8 ppg, while Rodman won his third straight rebounding title, averaging 17.3 rpg.
- On 3/19 vs. Sacramento, Dale Ellis made history as he became the first player in professional basketball history to make 1,000 three-pointers.
- David Robinson ended the season with a bang... in the final game of the 1993-94 campaign, he scored a Spurs franchise record 71 points at the Clippers on 4/24... Robinson is just the fourth player in NBA history to score 70 or more points and his total was the highest since the 1978 season... thanks to the 71-point effort, Robinson edged out Shaquille O'Neal to claim his first NBA Scoring Title... Robinson also made history earlier in the season when he became just the fourth player ever to record a quadruple-double... Robinson posted his vs. Detroit on 2/17, finishing with 34 points, 10 rebounds, 10 blocks and 10 assists.

1995-96 SEASON NOTES

- The 1996 All-Star Game was held in San Antonio... the East beat the West 129-118 in front of 36,037 in the Dome... Michael Jordan - in his first All-Star Game since 1993 - was the MVP, finishing with 20 points in 22 minutes... for the Western squad David Robinson had 18 points and 11 rebounds in 23 minutes and Sean Elliott finished with 13 points in 22 minutes.

- The Spurs finished the month of March with a perfect 16-0 record, matching the '71-72 Lakers for the best month ever recorded in NBA history... the Spurs perfect month was part of a franchise-record 17 game winning streak which went from 2/29-4/2... during the streak the Spurs matched a club record by winning eight straight games on the road.

- Avery Johnson and Vinny Del Negro finished with the best assist-to-turnover ratio among any starting backcourt in the NBA... AJ and Vinny combined for a 3.74-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio... Johnson's personal assist-to-turnover ratio of 4.05-to-1 was the best among any starter in the league.

- David Robinson and Chuck Person both hit a pair of major milestones during the season... on 3/14 vs. the Heat, Person connected on the 1,000th three-pointer of his career, becoming just the fourth player in history to hit the 1,000 mark... then, on 4/15 at Portland, Robinson became just the 10th player in NBA history to record 2,000 career blocks.

1996-97 SEASON NOTES

- Injuries were the big story for the Spurs all season, as 11 different players missed games due to injury... Chuck Person (82), David Robinson (76), Charles Smith (63), Sean Elliott (43), Dominique Wilkins (19), Will Perdue (17), Monty Williams (16), Vinny Del Negro (10), Vernon Maxwell (10), Avery Johnson (6) and Carl Herrera (5) combined to miss a total of 347 games due to injuries... a total of 20 players suited up for the Spurs and the team used 24 different starting lineups.
- The Spurs were 3-15 when Gregg Popovich replaced Bob Hill as Head Coach on 12/10/96... the Spurs finished the season with a 20-62 mark, the worst record in franchise history... for just the fourth time in their NBA history, the Spurs failed to qualify for the playoffs.
- One of the bright spots was the play of 37-year-old forward Dominique Wilkins... signed as a free agent before the start of the season, Wilkins averaged 18.2 points and 6.4 rebounds in 30.9 minutes in 63 games... he finished the season with 26,534 career points, which placed him in seventh place on the NBA's all-time scoring list.

1997-98 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs set an NBA record for the largest single season turnaround, posting a 56-26 mark - a 36 game improvement over their 20-62 record during the 1996-97 season ... the Spurs broke the old NBA record for a single season turnaround of 35 games, a mark set by the Spurs during the 1989-90 season.
- Tim Duncan enjoyed an impressive rookie season, averaging 21.1 points, 11.9 rebounds and 2.51 blocks per game ... he was the NBA Rookie of the Year, after being named the NBA Rookie of the Month all six months ... in addition, he earned a spot on the All-NBA First Team and the All-Defensive Second Team.
- After appearing in just six games during the 1996-97 season due to injuries, David Robinson returned to All-Star form during the 1997-98 campaign ... he appeared in 73 games, averaging 21.6 points, 10.6 rebounds and 2.63 blocks per contest ... Robinson joined Tim Duncan as a member of the 1998 NBA All-Star team ... in addition, he was named to the All-NBA Second Team and the All-Defensive Second Team.
- Tim Duncan and David Robinson became just the eighth set of teammates in NBA history to both average 20-plus points and 10-plus rebounds ... since 1970 the feat has been accomplished just four times ... in addition to Duncan and Robinson, other 20-point, 10-rebound teammates since that time have been Ralph Sampson and Hakeem Olajuwon (Houston in '84-85), Charles Barkley and Moses Malone (Philadelphia in '85-86) and Alonzo Mourning and Larry Johnson (Charlotte in '92-93).

A Winning Tradition.

The Incarnate Word Crusaders keep the excitement running.

Athletics at the University of the Incarnate Word brings one word to the mind. Winning! From our world-class sports training facilities, which are the home of the NBA champion SPURS, to our fifteen Crusader sports teams.

The '98-'99 season at UIW brought home three nationally ranked teams, including the men's basketball team which was number one in the country. Individual highlights included five All-Americans. Additionally, six others were designated All-America Scholar-Athletes, while four others received GTE Academic designations. To round out the season we also had four coaches receive "Coach of the year" honors.

Come and be part of the action as a great sports fan or collegiate player, call our athletic department at (210) 829-6050.
